4-Post-Conference Tourist

Chengdu is the capital of Sichuan Province and is awarded "The Best Tourist City of China " by World Tourism Organization and National Tourism Administration in 2006, Chengdu was one of the first centers of printing in China and has been famous for its luxurious satins, brocades, and lacquer ware since the 13th century. Chengdu is also home to the Chengdu Giant Panda Research Base (Chengdu Panda Breeding Area , <http://www.panda.org.cn/>), one of the most important centers in the world for the captive conservation of the Giant Panda. The Research Centre has evolved into China Panda City. Panda City encompasses a museum, as well as the Chengdu Zoo.

Sichuan Province, located in southwest China (area 470 000 km<sup>2</sup>), is bordered by the Tibetan Plateau in the west and by the Three Gorges and the Yangtze River in the east. Sichuan is known as the "Land of Abundance " and has four places on the World Cultural and Natural Heritage List:

Tour No.1 (optional): One-day tour to Mountain Qingcheng and Dujiangyan Irrigation System. Cost: US$50 (covering transportation, entrance tickets, eating, insurance, English tour guide).

Tour No.2 (optional): three-day tour to Jiuzhai Gou and Huanglong National Park. Cost: US$550 (covering return air-tickets, land transportation, entrance tickets, 4/5 star hotel, eating, insurance, English tour guide).

Tour No.3 (optional): Four-day tour to Jiuzhai Gou and Huanglong National Park. Cost: US$180 (covering return bus-tickets, land transportation, entrance tickets, 2/3 star hotel, eating, insurance, English tour guide).

Tour No.4 (optional): two-day tour to Leshan Giant Buddha and Mountain Emei. Cost: US$100 (covering land transportation, entrance tickets, 4-star hotel, eating, insurance, English tour guide).

Note 1: Due to the uncertainty on the seasonal discounts related to hotel, air-tickets and other tour issues, the fees indicated in Tour 1-4 are estimated average cost.
